Instructions and Rules

Purpose: The Nebraska Passport initiative aims to foster greater camaraderie among Nebraska's Masonic Family.

Objective: All Masonic Family members are encouraged to actively participate in or visit various Masonic gatherings or collaborate in organizing multi-organizational events/activities.

Procedure: Members should obtain signatures and dates from representatives of the events they attend, either within or outside their organization and are encouraged to promote these events on social media.
Please feel free to use additional passports if more space is needed.*

Scoring:
- 1 point for each attended event or meeting within the member's organization.
- 2 points for each attended event or meeting outside the member's organization.
- 3 points for bringing along another Sister or Brother.
- 5 points for participation in a multi-organizational event.

Bonus points: 1 bonus point will be added for each event that is posted on social media. Use the corresponding check boxes to keep track of posted events.

Prizes: The top 3 participants from each Masonic Organization will be awarded prizes at OES Grand Chapter & winners will be contacted.
